PREAMBLE

St Cecily's English Medium Higher Primary School, Udupi, started by the Apostolic Carmel Sisters in 1959, is a Minority Educational Institution as per the Constitutions of India, Article No. 30 (1). The school was granted Permanent Recognition by the Department of Education Government of Karnataka, in 1965 from Standard I to VII.

The Apostolic Carmel Congregation was founded by Mother Veronica of the Passion (1823 – 1906) in Bayonne, France, in 1868 and was established at St. Ann's campus in Mangalore in 1870 with its main thrust, the development of women in India, as Persons imbued with deep faith in God and in themselves by providing sound Catholic Education. Over the past hundred and fifty one years of its existence the Institute has expanded with a large number of educational establishments in India, Sri Lanka, Middle East, Pakistan and East Africa.

St Cecilia, the patroness of our school, was born in Rome, towards the close of the Second Century, while Alexander Severus was the Emperor. As a young girl her talent for music was highly remarkable. She was a Patrician, but was brought up as a Christian. From her early age she was determined to remain a maiden for the love of God. She used to fast and perform all kinds of penances and charitable works. But her parents had other designs for her, so gave her in marriage to a young Patrician, Valerian by name.

When Cecilia was taken before the Governor for her refusal to obey his orders she was threatened with a torturous death. She answered, "Do you not know that I am the bride of my Lord Jesus Christ?" The death planned for her was by suffocation and she remained a day and a night immersed in boiling water. When she was found unharmed she was struck by an axe in the head and breast. She lay bleeding for three days praying and exhorting all who visited her.

It is said that when Cecilia was kept in the boiling water for a day and a night she spent this day on earth praising God. Her constant prayer was 'Let my life be a song of praise.'

St Cecilia as the Patron Saint of our School is a model of all that is pure and beautiful to the young pupils of St. Cecily's. We have made her motto, 'Let my Life be a Song of Praise' as our Motto, too, in order that the students may be inspired to choose the hard right against the easy wrong in times of conflicts and temptations to yield to the allurements of this world. We want their life to be joyful inspite of all the hardships of life.

Vision Statement

Building of a God-oriented Educative Community to develop them as the Precious Human Resource of our Society.

Mission Statement

Imbued with deep faith in God and inspired by the Spirit of a Founder Venerable Mother Veronica and Apostolic Carmel pioneers in Education, in collaboration with the staff, the institution strives to promote holistic development of all students with specific focus on their spiritual, intellectual, emotional, social and aesthetic growth while perusing academic excellence and preservation environment.

Core Values:

The values which guide us at St Cecily School are:

1. Faith in God
2. Integrity
3. Excellence
4. Resilience
5. Respect
6. Moral uprightness
7. Love for nature
8. Service to the needy

The Vision and Mission of the school is highlighted in its motto –‘Let my Life be a song of praise.’

St Cecily’s Coat of Arms invites Cecilians to live a life of purity and goodness, mingled with awareness of the Divine, through earnest prayer, which will shield them from the malady of sin.

The Cross is a reminder of the suffering Jesus endured for us, which in spite of all our trials, fails us with hope and fortitude.

The Shining Stars brighten our path to tread towards our goal.

The Lily symbolizes purity.

The Palm Branch entuses to remain always lively and green.

The Harp is a remainder of St Cecilia’s spirit of praising God even in the midst of acute sufferings and pain.

The Crown of Mary, our Mother of Carmel, is a deep assurance of her intercession.

Psalm - 91

GOD OUR PROTECTOR

1. Whoever goes to the Lord for safety, Whoever remains under the protection of the Almighty.
2. Can say to Him, "You are my defender and protector, You are my God ; in you I trust."
3. He will keep you safe from all hidden dangers and from all deadly diseases.
4. He will cover you with his wings; You will be safe in his care; His faithfulness will protect and defend you.
5. You need not fear any dangers at night or sudden attacks during the day.
6. Or the plagues that strike in the dark or the evils that kill in daylight.
7. A thousand may fall dead beside you, ten thousand all around you but you will not be harmed.
8. You will look and see how the wicked are punished.
9. You have made the Lord your defender, the Most High your protector.
10. And so no disaster will strike you, no violence will come near your home.
11. God will put his angels in charge of you to protect you wherever you go.
12. They will hold you up with their hands to keep you from hurting your feet on the stones.
13. You will trample down lions and snakes fierce lions and poisonous snakes.
14. God says, "I will save those who love me and will protect those who acknowledge me as Lord.
15. When they call to me, I will answer them; when they are in trouble, I will be with them. I will rescue them and honour them.
16. I will reward them with long life; I will save them."
